Tax Exemption?

It's clear that any application to gain federal 501(c)(3) tax exemption for the National Alliance will not be granted, even though the Alliance is just as entitled to this exemption as other educational organizations. The Alliance had such an exemption more than 30 years ago. That is, it did until it was revoked by IRS bureaucrats after pressure on that agency from Jewish groups like the Anti-Defamation League. The Cosmotheist Church, on the other hand, being a Church, is a different story. The first clause in the Bill of Rights — still worth invoking while we can — states that “Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion.” Founding father Thomas Jefferson took that to mean that when the American people adopted the establishment clause a “wall of separation was built between the Church and State”; Government must remain neutral and respect its citizens' religious liberty. Our Cosmotheist Church is a legitimate church with a 40-year history, whether Jews and federal bureaucrats want to recognize our strongly-held beliefs or not. Our religion does not seek the approval of the State because there is no necessity to do so.

Our conclusion, after investigating tax exemption possibilities for several months, is simple: Those who donate to the Cosmotheist Church can lawfully take a charitable tax deduction for those gifts like any other American making a donation to his church. Period! Federal 501(c)(3) tax exemption is not required for a church. If Jews wish to challenge the right of Cosmotheists to make tax-exempt donations to our Church, they might at the same time jeopardize their co-religionists' ability to make tax-exempt donations to their synagogues and other Jewish institutions. That will be our counterstrategy going forward. We will get around the Jews' scheme to keep us from being funded by our people, one way or another.

Gun Show Activism

Member A.R. in Louisiana purchased and manned a table at a gun show in the northern part of his state this month to promote the National Alliance and to sell some of the books offered at Cosmotheist Books. He reports: "The show went well with a few Whites of our persuasion attending and stopping by to talk. Most who came by the table were neutral, with the only ones who expressed anything negative being a mixed-race couple and an ignorant detractor that claimed Dr. Pierce was 'with Aryan Nations' [the prison outreach of the defunct Church of Jesus Christ Christian]. Gun Control in Germany and SS Panzergrenadier were the main sellers, bringing the truth of World War 2, we hope, to those who bought them. Also, with every sale was included one of our business cards which may lead the purchasers to the right path. I'll try to get a National Alliance banner for the next show."

Cosmotheist Books

When Cosmotheist Books online was first created from the ashes of National Vanguard Books, just ten titles were offered. Now, with the addition of the Power of Truth, Vol. 8 CD and the ten new book titles added this month, a full 115 books and CDs are now offered. These newest titles are: Abuse of Power: The New Nixon Tapes by Stanley Kutler (hardback); Roger Pearson's Heredity and Humanity: Race, Eugenics and Modern Science, and his Race, Intelligence and Bias in Academe; The Face of Africa by Hans Jürgens (hardback); The Giant With Feet of Clay: Raul Hilberg and his Standard Work on the "Holocaust" by Jürgen Graf; The Alamo by John Myers Myers; Homer's The Odyssey, retold by Geraldine McCaughrean; Hans F.K. Günther's Religious Attitudes of the Indo-Europeans; Ralph Townsend's classic Ways That Are Dark, The Truth About China; and Bram Stoker's enduring novel Dracula. Bulk purchases of National Alliance business cards and our glossy, full-color magazine-style Building a New White World promotional booklet are now also available at cosmotheistchurch.org/shop/. Use of customers' credit and debit cards to make online purchases there is still uncertain from one week to the next, since we're fighting our enemies every day as they deny us the right to engage in online commerce, but orders by mail always work, as do orders using cryptocurrency. More and more are using cryptocurrency now to get around the censors.

Legal Update

The case of the substantial estate that was bequeathed to the National Alliance by our late member from Canada, Dr. Robert McCorkill, who died in 2004, may soon be resolved. The US-based SPLC hate group intervened to illegally stop that bequest in 2013, along with the Canadian Jewish Congress and Canadian Friends of Israel. They succeeded in having Dr. McCorkill's will invalidated by Canadian courts because — so they said — it "violated public policy" for a Canadian to leave his estate to what they deemed to be "a criminal organization." Despite these false characterizations and blatant injustice, as incredible as it may sound, the Alliance is still entitled to be reimbursed the thousands of dollars that we invested in maintaining Dr. McCorkill's estate during the 15 years since he died. We await the case's final disposition.

The Alliance's $850,000 counter-claim against the co-administrators of John McLaughlin's estate is slowly moving through courts in both Illinois and Virginia as various motions, discovery requests, interrogatories, etc., are going back and forth among attorneys. It will be recalled that Mr. McLaughlin, who had a $4,000,000 estate, was foolish enough to allow his employee Garland DeCourcy to cajole him into suing the National Alliance in Virginia one week before the $2,000,000 lawsuit that had been filed there against us in 2014 was dismissed back in July of 2016. The cases were nearly identical, and both were dismissed due to the plaintiffs' obvious lack of standing. Mr. McLaughlin's breach of fiduciary responsibility by assisting the plaintiffs in the first lawsuit, while being a Director on the Alliance's Board, was indefensible then and is still indefensible now.

Chairman Williams is preparing his brief to the West Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals (WVSCA) during the month of August to vacate the misdemeanor battery conviction of his accuser Garland DeCourcy — yes, the same woman who was involved in three civil cases against the Alliance that were part of her judicial coup attempts to seize control of Alliance assets. (All her suits are long since dismissed, and she is a fugitive, having fled West Virginia to parts unknown last October.) Chairman Williams has solid appealable issues and will appear before the five WVSCA Justices in Charleston pro se (without an attorney). An interesting wrinkle in his brief is this: The Magistrate who found the Chairman guilty and sentenced him to six months in jail in 2016 has been suspended without pay for judicial misconduct by the same five WVSCA Justices. Williams and his attorneys state that said Magistrate was impaired, and should have recused herself from his case, for reasons including her emotional outburst at sentencing, shaking her finger in Williams' face and shouting, "I have been abused myself and there will be no battering of females in my county!" (No such battery by Williams ever took place.) As shown in public court records from the WVSCA, this judge has had a long history of dependency on alcohol and a serious addiction to prescription drugs. She was habitually late for work, showed up at magistrate meetings drunk, among other violations of the West Virginia Judicial Code of Conduct. Chairman Williams will make the case that his wrongful conviction by her hand should be overruled by the same five justices who previously ruled against her, suspending her from her position as judge, without pay, twice.

Correspondence

Dear Chairman Williams: I hope the rest of July has been productive. The BULLETIN was great, [Mrs. G.] especially loved it. I also got some good tips about wheat paste. Look forward to putting it to use. Enclosed is a check for my next six months of membership dues. I want to tell you I received my snail-mailed book order and am very pleased. I was hoping you had your credit card service straightened out, but have started to see that this may be a long battle, so I've learned how to navigate the cryptocurrency world. May I suggest that some sort of tutorial or statement on the Web site would help to simplify the process for others to do the same. I just ordered the Power of Truth Vol. 8 CD, Serpent's Walk, and the Triumph of the Will video last night using cryptocurrency.
— J.G., Maryland

Dear Chairman Williams: I don't know if our planned William L. Pierce Memorial Library is able to store donated books currently, but long in my family, for perhaps 100 years, are 14 books (at 15 pounds), copyright 1910: [titles of European monarchs and courts deleted]. These books give detailed insights into Europe's past and are in readable condition. They do not have indexes but one can hunt through their tables of contents. Do you want these books for the library? If so, can I post them to you now. — O.C., Louisiana

Chairman Williams responds: Until we have our purpose-built facility we cannot store more large collections, but, yes, we'll find a place for that family collection of just 14 volumes. European History is one of the organizing topics in Dr. Pierce's research library, with sub-divisions by nation and historical periods. The new library will organize volumes similarly, classified by topic with sub-categories, cataloged in a digital database to suit our purposes — not by the Dewey Decimal System.

Chairman Williams, the spring rains that flooded Eastern Iowa from April through June prevented mass distributions of flyers under the sun or stars, but every day at least one flier or business card was distributed in this area, and once in another, over those three months. A few dry days gave the opportunity to put out several hundred fliers over this time period. Even on wet days, business cards were left in places easily seen in White-majority areas while remaining dry. Member J.C. reports having distributed a sizable amount of Alliance material whenever he found the opportunity to do so. He also reported that a Bernie Sanders supporter had a fit on Facebook (FB) after discovering an Alliance flier on his car a couple of weeks ago — he had made an FB thread with over 200 responses. Most were negative, but some weren't... Update: On July 28th two different local television news agencies, WKOC-TV6 and QuadCities-TV4, lamented the National Alliance's continued "controversial white supremacist flier-ing" in Davenport at a festival event. Rabbi Karp was interviewed, of course, along with some other religious leader. The flier that was shown on both newscasts was our "They Hate Us" flier, with the Alliance's Web address clearly viewable. The good news is that we've got a copycat leafleter putting out our material around here. It wasn't done by either me or J.C. With my best regards to you, Lana, and staff, — Jim Mathias, Iowa

Christian Attacks National Vanguard

[A comment left at National Vanguard.] This site is a FRAUD! This site isn't truly against the jew, rather it SERVES the jew with all the anti-Christian BS... Just like the jew, this site condemns Christianity. It seems like controlled opposition to me. Only the jews seek to destroy Christianity. For those here who believe in the anti-Christian BS here, you are SERVING THE JEW! Never coming back here. Keep on serving the jew here. — "Stevie" (no other name or location given)

Chairman Williams responded on the site: Heesus Christos, Stevie boy! You've stumbled in at the wrong site. Go from us. May your chains set lightly upon you... [W.W.W. added:] Occasionally, I catch something on my electronic Jew worth passing on to others. Monday it was this year's Christians United For Israel (CUFI) Summit on one of the C-SPAN channels. Everyone who thinks Jews want to destroy Christianity, or vice versa; or that the National Alliance is "controlled opposition" with its Cosmotheist world view (that, yes, takes a decidedly dim view of Jew-spawned Christianity), should watch all 148 minutes of this CUFI love fest [8 July, 2019], here: <https://www.c-span.org/video/?462328-1/christians-united-israel-summit>. Rousing speeches to the exuberant, united Jew/Christian audience by unhinged Christian Zionists John Hagee and "our" Secretary of State Mike Pompeo, were only outdone by "our" part-Jew National Security Adviser John Bolton and the Israeli Ambassador to the United Nations. This should be required viewing! Even Stevie boy might become deprogrammed from his Semitic spookcraft had he not run off. And for consistency of the National Alliance message, I offer:

The greatest obstacle to the survival of our race is Christianity. Even with all their malice and cunning, the Jews would pose no real threat to the race were it not for their Christian collaborators. In the U.S. just as in South Africa, the Jews may be pulling a lot of strings behind the scenes, but the troops in the war against the White race are mainly White Christians filled with religious guilt and obsessed with the need to expiate that guilt by sacrificing their own race on the altar of "equality".... Let us never forget... that Christianity itself is an alien, hostile, racially destructive creed of Jewish origin, and in the future most of those who have fallen under its spell will continue to be our enemies and the enemies of our race. — Dr. William Pierce, National Alliance BULLETIN, February 1989

Responding to Damaging Rumors

[Email to the Alliance] As a ... "recently awakened" White USA Citizen of European descent, I, too, have been reading/listening to WLP's articles/broadcasts for a few months now. I am in awe, still amazed how could I have missed all that when it happened decades ago; I was a 30-something then, I am almost twice that now.

The National Alliance Web site and the resources found therein have been instrumental to my awakening. I somehow knew that a sinister force was behind the "mess of our world." I could sense its pernicious effect, eroding the foundations of our White European civilization, but somehow I just couldn't put my finger on it. I was always in doubt and, I admit, afraid not to ... "offend" anyone. Today, I know, "offending" is good, it is one of the fundamental values in our life, the driving force behind finding the Truth or at least coming to a heroic "End" while trying to do so. So am I declaring that I am one of you! I am thinking the same way and willing to act accordingly.

However, if I actually join the ranks or act independently in my own "parallel universe" will depend on whether I find (alone or with your help) convincing answers to the following 3 questions:

1. Explain the "quasi-legal" methods used by our enemies to "bring down" David Duke and Kevin Strom.

2. Tell us the true story behind the 2002-2013 era (i.e. What was Erich Gliebe role, including Shaun Walker's short stint and what connection did Thomas Mair had with the National Alliance.

3. Explain how/why the lurid stories circulating on the Internet about WLP, are not true: (embezzlement, acceptance of stolen goods, salacious stories i.e. Alliance's money spent with eastern-European women or questionable ethics, failure to pursue an academic career, like Revilo Oliver, but turned into racial nationalism as an alternative, etc ... ).

All these allegations, need to be once and for all explained and refuted or the "movement" will never reach critical mass because our people although willing and committed, they have been betrayed many times in the past and seek a genuine leader to line behind and march to battle with. And you can be sure about that: We will march to battle determined to vanquish our enemies and come out of this mess victorious or if that's not attainable, then die an honorable death, sacrificing ourselves for our race. Interested to read your comments/replies. — X.O. (no location given)

Chairman Williams responds: X.O. decided to made this comment on NV.org under the text of the very first American Dissident Voices broadcast that Kevin Strom hosted for us five and one half years ago — 28 December, 2013 — titled "ADV: Renewal and Rebirth." Of course all of these so-called allegations/rumors about our Alliance have been countered with the truth numerous times, but tend to get buried and lost — and people like X.O., new to the cause, will demand explanations/refutations, "once and for all," or they are certain that, otherwise, the "movement" will never reach the critical mass required to succeed. It is not just an Internet problem: Jewish hate groups, paid agents, and the compliant, controlled media have been smearing the Alliance with false allegations for decades and will continue to do so. That is what they do. Look at the entry for the National Alliance on the Jew-controlled online encyclopedia, Wikipedia, for example. Look at the sources cited for that entry, — all from either the SPLC, the ADL or some other anti-White group. I won't take up more space here in the BULLETIN with this but members who are interested can go read Kevin's reply to X.O., by searching for "Renewal and Rebirth" at nationalvanguard.org., and can refer others to that if they demand explanations for things said about us on Wikipedia or elsewhere.

What is needed to speed our victory and the great things that will bring is not more people with a tendency to always be "demanding answers" to our enemies' latest fictions about us (they can and sometimes do make them up by the dozen every week or every day), but team players who know what needs to be done and who will put their shoulders to the wheel with us.

Commentary by Chairman William White Williams

The William Pierce / Revilo Oliver Connection

It was good to receive Alliance member O.C.'s letter, offering worthwhile books to the William Luther Pierce Memorial Library. We would like to find a place soon to store even larger donated collections as we work on completion of our new facility, but what we prefer now, and can easily handle, are suitable single volumes, especially those published since Dr. Pierce's death, that will supplement, update, and mesh well with his personal research library, whose sections include Race, Jewish Topics, History and Historical Revisionism, Politics, Biography, Science, Religion, Philosophy, World War II, and many more. Our budget does not allow for the purchase of many newer books at this time, but that day will come.

I purchased one rare volume this month that will certainly fit into our library. In the chapter on Revilo P. Oliver in the only biography of Dr. Pierce, The Fame of A Dead Man's Deeds by Dr. Robert Griffin (available at Cosmotheist Books), Dr. Pierce told us that in the early 1970s he had been frustrated by his inability to reach enough people with his non-fiction writing, and that his friend, Dr. Oliver, suggested to him that he try his hand at fiction — since most people who might respond to his ideas did not read non-fiction. Pierce liked the suggestion but had never written fiction and didn't know how to go about writing it. Oliver mailed him a photocopy of an obscure novel that had been published anonymously by the John Birch Society (JBS) in 1959 that he thought might show Pierce how to get his ideas across in a light, adventure-packed fictional story.

Dr. Oliver had been one of the dozen founding member of the JBS in 1958, and Dr. Pierce had briefly been a member in the early 1960s also, until both resigned in disgust, in part because of the Society's refusal to confront the fundamental problems of race and the Jewish question.

The photocopied novel Oliver mailed to Pierce was The John Franklin Letters, styled as a series of letters mailed to the main character's uncle and set in what was then the future — the 1970s. The letters described a revolution in America led by anti-Communist patriots who fought against the "Buros" (bureaucrats). Reading The John Franklin Letters, Dr. Pierce had an "aha!" moment that inspired him to write The Turner Diaries, which has since awakened two generations of Americans.

So, on a whim, I checked online and discovered to my amazement that there was a copy of the now-rare Franklin Letters available, but only one — and so I snapped it up for just $23. I am convinced that the book was written by Professor Oliver, though he did not admit that to Dr. Pierce. It's understandable that he would not claim authorship, considering the novel's radicalism and his public positions and academic career. Though his ideology evolved after 1959, and there was probably much he chose not to say, to anyone familiar with Oliver's inimitable prose, his fingerprints are all over The John Franklin Letters. I've mailed this historical document to Kevin Strom for his review, and it will be returned when he is finished and will hold a special place in Dr. Pierce's Memorial Library.

The 60th anniversary of the publication of the Franklin Letters was celebrated this month by two other Pierce/Oliver anniversaries, these for the 50 years since July of 1969. Of Kevin Strom's weekly American Dissident Voices broadcasts during July, one remembered the anniversary of the Apollo 11 moon landing — the date former rocket scientist William Pierce made the very first entry into his personal journal that read, "20 July, 1969 — 80th year since the birth of the Leader. These are based on Dr. Oliver's seminal speech "After 50 Years," delivered in July 1969, which was made into a promotional film for the National Youth Alliance (predecessor to the National Alliance). As this issue of the BULLETIN goes to press, part three of "After 100 Years" is scheduled for broadcast on Saturday, 3 August. Alliance members should listen to these programs to better understand the rich history of our organization.

Whites Need Groupthink

"Racist? You're damned right I'm racist. What are you? — a race-mixer?" That is my first response to anyone impudent enough to call me a "racist," thinking somehow I would shrink from that label. So be it! When more Whites respond like that, or at least proudly embrace the positive label "racial loyalist," the overused buzzword "racist" will lose any real or imagined clout it has to put a guilt trip on Whitey. "Racist, racist!" is used a lot lately, and only against Whites. White racial loyalists should simply ignore the name-callers, or, better still, ridicule them and let them know in no uncertain terms that they are the problem, not we.

The popular prime time host on Fox News, Tucker Carlson, is not really "one of us." He's more a conservative libertarian. Carlson closes his show each night with the catchphrase that he's "the sworn enemy of lying, pomposity, smugness, and groupthink." Nobody cares much for pomposity and smugness; that's easy to claim. But he's not the sworn enemy of lying or of liars, or he'd be telling the same vital truths to his viewers that the National Alliance tells. But he can't. As for groupthink, Carlson's Jewish media bosses certainly think and act as a group, judging everything by the simple question, "Is it good for the Jews?" This is an important reason for their effectiveness and power.

Our race also needs to be thinking and acting as one — "groupthink," if you will. Is a policy or action good for our race? If so, it is to be supported. Or is it detrimental? If so, it should be opposed with everything we've got. It is not difficult to judge issues like this. Uniting as a group in thought and deed is good, not evil. It is also a necessity. The National Alliance brings moral clarity to our people. The Tucker Carlsons of this world do the opposite. W. W. W.
